Book Trailers Part 2: Script Writing and Marketing

*Become a Movie Producer:
Using a Professional Book Trailer Service*

Part 1 of the Book Trailer presentation by Judith Ingram at the June 2018 Writers Table provided a do-it-yourself option for book trailer creation. In Part 2, Jill Hedgecock will provide an alternative for planning and preparing your video project using a professional service (Chasing Light Studios). Jill will walk you through how she wrote a script to quickly capture the essence of her debut novel, Rhino in the Room, and worked with Chasing Light Studios to select voice-overs and images to develop a one-minute video trailer. She will also suggest resources to market the finished book trailer. Even if you opt to create your own book trailer, you'll find value in attending.
